All Affiliates/State units/Members,

Dear Comrades,

CONCILIATION PROCEEDINGS INCONCLUSIVE - STRIKE STANDS

A Conciliation Meeting in response to the Strike Notice of UFBU for observing all India strike on 28th February, 2017, was held today at 11.30 a.m. by Sh. Anil Kumar Nayak - CLC in his Chamber at Shram Shakti Bhavan, New Delhi. Representatives from constituents of UFBU, except from NOBO and NOBW were present in the meeting.

AIBOC was represented by the undersigned, Com. Ajay Jaitley - President of Delhi State Committee and Com. Pankaj Kapoor, Treasurer, AIBOC. Sh. S.R. Mehar, Dy. Secretary, D.F.S. represented Government in the meeting. Sh. K.S. Chauhan, Sr. Vice President and Sh. Atul Gautam, Sr. Advisor were present on behalf of IBA. After brief introduction, CLC asked UFBU to present their case. All issues covered in the strike notice were presented and explained by us. IBA & Government representatives submitted their views. In brief they argued that most of the issues are based on apprehensions only and the remaining issues are in process of consideration at various levels.

After listening to both the parties and considering the views of both sides, CLC made a request to Unions to withdraw the strike. CLC also advised DFS and IBA to initiate the dialogue for settlement of issues of the strike so that the same can be averted. In view of no positive response or commitment, UFBU stands firm on its decision of strike. The minutes of the conciliation proceedings are in the process of drafting by CLC and would be circulated as and when received.

We call upon all our rank and file to make the preparatory programmes and All India Strike on 28th February, 2017 a grand success !

With revolutionary greetings,

Comradely Yours,

(HARVINDER SINGH)
GENERAL SECRETARY

MARCH ON, COMRADES ! MARCH ON !!
