To,
The Hon'ble Chief Justice
The Supreme Court of India
New Delhi

Your Lordship,

NATIONAL LOK ADALAT ON 8th APRIL 2017
CONDUCTED ON 2ND AND 4TH SATURDAY (HOLIDAY)

We would like to draw your kind attention to our earlier letter No-AIBOC/2017/5 dated 30.03.2017 where we had requested your kind intervention on the issue where our Officers are regularly being forced to work on Holidays, especially on 2nd and 4th Saturdays for attending Lok Adalats.

Considering the fact that all our branches have already started the preparation for Lok Adalat scheduled to be held on 08.04.2017 (2nd Saturday), we can presume that it might not be practically possible to reschedule the same on a working day due to paucity of time. We also understand that the concerned branches must have sent notices to the eligible borrowers besides initiating other necessary action for the Lok Adalat. Hence, we request your kind office to intervene suitably in the matter which has already been brought to your attention and kindly make necessary arrangements so that, henceforth, the unabated trend of conducting Lok Adalats on Holidays can be brought to an end.

We have full faith on your Lordship and are hopeful that your good office will bring justice to our cause which otherwise is adversely affecting the work life balance of our Officers, besides curtailing a bonafide right which has been achieved after a prolonged struggle and sacrifice.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

(D.T. Franco)
General Secretary
